

The Memphis  Medical Society

and Bluff City Medical Society

in conjunction with the State of Tennessee present the

Controlled Substance Symposium

Mitchell Mutter, MD, FACC - facilitator
Tennessee Department of Health

Tuesday, March 12, 2013

6:00 - 8:00 pm (refreshments provided)

Baptist Main - Garrett Auditorium

6019 Walnut Grove Road (at I-240)

Memphis, Tennessee 38120

2 hours of CME have been applied for through ETSU

This seminar is open to anyone with prescribing privileges – physicians, pharmacists, nurse practitioners, etc.

Controlled Substance Objectives

1. Understand the Prescription Safety Act and meaning of compliance
2. Pain clinic registration and requirements
3. Establish contacts and relationship among all stakeholders, law enforcement, Tennessee Department of Health, physicians, nurses, physician assistants, pharmacists and local citizens
4. Understand the mind of a drug seeker and consider safety net options

There is NO COST to attend. RSVP to Janice Cooper at jcooper@mdmemphis.org

1067 Cresthaven Road Memphis, TN 38119 901-761-0200 (P) 901-761-2944 (F)